

My name is Rafael Dávila.

I was born and raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico, a US territory.

I got my BSCE degree from the University of Puerto Rico at Mayagüez 1976 and a MSCE with a concentration in Project Management from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology 1978. Soon I became a Professional Engineer [PE] registered in Puerto Rico.

For about 40 years I practiced engineering mainly as a Project Manager involved in medium rise buildings, commercial buildings, institutional buildings, pharmaceuticals and water/wastewater treatment plants. I have worked other roles such as scheduler/estimator and project inspector.

Currently I do planning and scheduling from the point of view of the construction contractor undertaking work at risk.

The image shows a screenshot of a web page from the MIT Alumni Association. The header reads "MIT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION INFINITE CONNECTION ALUMNI DIRECTORY". Below the header, there is a "Home" link. A profile picture of Mr. Rafael Davila-Marcano is displayed, followed by his name in red text. Below the name, there is a section titled "MIT Information" with the following details:

- Department: CE - Civil Engineering
- Degrees: 1978, SM - Master Of Science, Course 1 - Civil & Env Eng
- Alumni Clubs: Club Area of Puerto Rico
- Preferred Class Year: 1978