

Mr. Costantino has over 15 years of experience involving several complex project/program management environments. He has a strong background in Design, Cost Estimating, Scheduling and Document Control. He is a Primavera P6 and Contract Management Trainer and has provided clients with Project Estimates, Professional Consulting, and Support Services within the Oracle Primavera Applications. Mr. Costantino has made several speaking presentations to national audiences in regards to integration of project information into the Primavera Application to increase efficiency of construction schedules and project costs. Mr. Costantino is a current member of the AACE.